History:

Johan Albert Moss was born in 1816 in Lingen, Germany (they actually list the city as Altenlingen meaning “old” Lingen) to Gerhard Henrich Moss and Gesina Aldelheid (Revermann) Moss. Johan died in Altenlingen on November 5, 1866.

Anna Marie (Haverland) Moss, wife of Johan Albert Moss was born December 20, 1813 in Altenlingen, Germany to Gerhard and Euphenia (Varel) Haverland. She and Johan were married May 4, 1842 in Altenlingen, Germany. She died April 9, 1903 in St. Rose, Illinois and is buried there. She immigrated to the United States along with her three sons, Bernard Herman, George Herman and Henrich Herman arriving in Baltimore, Maryland on March 17, 1874 on a ship from Bremen, Germany named the “Berlin”. The ship docket actually spells their last name as Moos. Anna and her sons all came to St. Rose, Illinois to be with her daughter Maria Theresa.
